

HARVEST

"Every day we must open ourselves up to God's initiatives and control. Self-denial takes shape in many ways. For some, it may mean leaving job and family as the disciples have done. For the proud, it means renouncing the desire for status and honor. For the greedy, it means renouncing an appetite for wealth. The complacent will have to renounce the love of ease. The fainthearted will have to abandon the craving for security. The violent will have to repudiate the desire for revenge..."

Do you find yourself in this quote? Do you have anything that is hindering you from going all in on following Jesus?

- Jesus had an _____ to follow Him.
- To give up our own way, we're _____ control.*
- To take up your cross, we put to _____ ourselves.*
- We have a basic human desire for _____.
- Jesus is _____ who follow Him.
- The biggest obstacle in following Jesus is _____.
- Don't make _____ for your _____.
- When you do sin, _____ it and give it to the Lord.
