

HARVEST

Think about your prayer life. Are you openly and honestly praying to God and trusting His will in your life? When you do pray, do you actually believe that God can answer or is there a disconnect in your heart?

Jesus envisioned a community of Christ followers that not only followed in word and truth, but in love and action. Do you see yourself as open to follow His leading in your life and to minister in the context God has placed you?

Did anything in the sermon stick out to you? Did God give you a next step you need to follow obediently? Would you like to talk with someone about a step you need to take?
